CASE introduces its new Central Committee

The Consumers Association of Singapore (CASE) would like to introduce its new Central Committee members who were elected into office during its Annual General Meeting on 23 June 2012.

The new Central Committee would be led by Mr Lim Biow Chuan. Closely assisting Mr Lim would be Prof Ang Peng Hwa and Mr Toh Yong Chuan.

The 20-member strong Central Committee also welcomes five new members into the team. The five new members are:

- 1) Mr Chan Wai Meng Benedict
- 2) Dr Alexander Loke Fay Hoong
- 3) Mr Mohammed Bin Abu Bakar
- 4) Mr Steven Tan
- 5) Dr Tan Sze Wee

Similar to the previous Central Committee, the new committee is made up of people who come from a diverse background including unionists, businessman, academics and lawyers. Despite coming from a diverse background, the Central Committee is committed to CASE's mission of protecting and enhancing consumers' interests through information and education, and to promote a fair-trading environment.

The new Central Committee list is as follows:

- 1) Mr Lim Biow Chuan (President)
- 2) Prof Ang Peng Hwa (Vice-President)
